THE CLASS OF JUNE 1943 PRESENTS

Prologue

During the first week of September 1939 World War II began. A few days after that fateful date our class entered Barringer High School. We had hoped to take part in a drama of peaceful settings. However, before much time had elapsed we came to the realization that we had become actors in a great tragedy that was using the entire earth as a stage. Peoples who were formerly peaceful, honest, hardy and secure now were converted into legions of destruction bent on the conquest of one another.

Hence, it was in this setting that we accepted our roles as students in Barringer, a school rich in glory and tradition. As fledgling actors, we found many a rough spot which we traversed with no little difficulty. However, as time went by, we were gradually assigned more important and difficult roles, roles which kindled the sparks of truth, honor and light.

We have enacted our individual parts to the best of our ability. We have been assisted by the guiding spirit of our able directors through four great acts. Through these acts we have gained vital knowledge and experience. Thus, as the curtain slowly descends and our play is over, we are prepared to accept any role, whether it be in peace or in the tragedy of continued war. If it be in war, we shall go into it with the hope that our sacrifices will make it impossible for any future class to write, "We entered Barringer just after the beginning of World War III."

Famed in song and story
Temple gray and castle hold
Catch the sunset glory.*

Looks o'er vale and meadow;

Many voices blending;
Through the years we pledge thee praise,
Loyal to life's ending.*

Class Song

*Four full acts have we presented
In these famed and honored halls,
And each is now a treasured mem'ry
As, too soon, the curtain falls.*

*The guiding stars which lead us onward,
Of Truth and Honor and of Light,
Shine on us in hours of darkness,
And in our hearts burn ever bright.*

*Our critics were the wisest sages,
Molding us while fledglings still,
To cope with Life's more seasoned actors,
To learn new roles and scenes to fill.*

*Now Future's magic foot-lights brighten,
We are as shadows on these walls,
They light us to the world we enter,
As, too soon, the curtain falls.*

Avoid

"The Road to Anywhere"

Those who choose such a course, thus permitting the future to take care of itself, make a major mistake.

Aimless wandering is not for modern young men and women who must prepare themselves for the skills and responsibilities of a chosen career if they are to meet stern competition.

Fix your purpose and follow it with determination. Then you will be travelling . . .

All Out for Victory!

In these challenging days, requiring the utmost effort of every one of us to bring a complete victory to our country and a lasting peace to the world, the educational front—like the battle front and the production front—plays a vital role.

The year book today has a new and powerful motif: to reflect the school in wartime.

Likewise, the year book today has a richer meaning than ever before: it is engraved with memories of friends and classmates who will be setting forth to all the fronts.

You rightfully expect a year book that will hold a proud place in the annals of your school, and for these reasons we dedicate our trained skills, our modern plant, and our experienced services to the fulfillment of your most discriminating requirements.
